In the deliberate judgment of the Democratic cancus Frank J. Healy is the best man in Wheeling to be Chie of the Fire Department. If the city had been raked over a man less fit for the place could not have been found. The Democratic cancus is piling it on. A NEW YORK widow wrote foolish love-sick letters to a young man to induce him to be her very own. Persuasion failing, she bought bim outright for $17,000. Now she wants back her free prices as per advertisement. dom and her money. A widow should cause there was something in him, closely upon methods which William is somebody because he inherited a throne. What stuff!

THE Democratic newspapers of New enumeration of that city did not take in enough people. Calvin $ Brice, the Senator-elect from Ohio, complains that the operation to a self-pin for many when the properties to be in the many when the properties the prope the enumeration took in too many when it included his family. It is pleasing to hear that Col. Fred Grant has completely broken through the hard crust of the exclusive society an immense audience to see the repre of the Austrian capital. What more can we ask? If our diplomats win gocial triumphs our foreign relations will contique to furnish our Presidents texts for felicitation in their annual messages.

THE Medical Journal advises that celer; be washed with great care before being placed on the table, all because of the ugly little typhoid bacillus that may find a hiding place on the celery as th result of night-soil fertifizer. It should not be too much trouble to see that everything intended for the table is absolutely clean, and celery, for example can be made by washing and scraping

MR. CLARKSON makes the point that At apublicans have been exerting themselves more to fight R-publicans than to be expected to be well patronized. get the enemy down. This is a way Republicans have. Some times they fight with reason, some times without reason. If a leader does not please them, they let him know it. It is a rare thing for Democrats to turn on their leaders, who may do what they please so long as they lead to victory. The Republican way has some redeaming

The Democratic suggestion that the proposed, and now seemingly disposed, national election law, was the cause of national election law, was the cause of the recent financial flurry, must not be brushed aside with a breath by Repubbrushed aside with a breath by Repub-It is altogether reasonable to suppose that the discussion of the bill aforesaid disturbed the placid current of affairs in the Argentine Republic, which disturbance shook the house of Baring, whose troubles rattled Europs, whose state of mind found a sympathetic response in Wall street and enabled Mr. Gould to relieve some people of certain reilroad properties which they could no longer carry and he very much desired. It is all plain enough when you figure it out · Persecution of Jews in Russin.

It is useless for the Russian government and its champions to deny the persecution of the Jews in that half barbarous empire. The testimony on the other side is conclusive. The Jews in Russia are baited at every point-forbidden to caltivate the soil and forced to herd in cities and towns from which again they are forbidden to remove: forbidden to practice the rites of their religion without paying for a special license; denied the right to edueate their children save under circum stances the most adverse, at the best leaving a large percentage who have no educational facilities whatever; taxed

Russia does not like to have her policy criticised by the outside world. All the same every word of criticism, every word of sympathy for the frightfully oppressed is a help. It all goes to make strong the protesting voice of the civil-ized world, which Russia must hear.

They Like It and Do It Well, The good women who do at least par of Santa Claus' shopping for him do not think they enjoy the task, but they do. They like to make the tour of the shops, to price and look over the wares, to have the wagons roll up with such things as they cannot stuff away in those capac-
